This Week: Wonderful Wales!

In English the children have been writing a shopping list for our trip to Waitrose and writing a recount of our fabulous Eisteddfod

In Maths the identifying coins up to £1 and paying for items in our role play shop with coins up to £1

In Topic the children have been preparing the vegetables then cooking and eating our delicious cawl, making bookmarks for World Book Day, discussing healthy foods and using Welsh words to describe the food we like and dislike...

Next week - new topic, 'tell me a story'

Literacy - The children will be looking at the features of a fairy tale and 'boxing up' the story of Jack and the Beanstalk

In Maths - The children will be creating their own bar graph

In Topic - the children will be learning all about castles and weather permitting, visit Llanblethian castle to take photos and sketch the castle.
